We are transmitting under separate cover a sterilized copy of a contact report of AECASSOWARY 29's meeting of 1 December 1960 with Włodysław WOŁOSZYN in connection with Subject of reference A. We are providing Headquarters with this report at the request of <input type="checkbox"/> of MOG to inform Headquarters as to the extent of FOB involvement in connection with this REDSKIN operation. 2. As stated in reference A, AECASSOWARY 29 received this lead during conversations with WOŁOSZYN concerning ABEREIVE matters, the cover under which AECASSOWARY 29 has been operating. Upon the receipt of reference B we informed AECASSOWARY 29 that we had no interest in Subject of reference A and instructed him to inform WOŁOSZYN that Subject of reference A was not of interest to AECASSOWARY 29 in connection with ABEREIVE affairs. We gave AECASSOWARY 29 no particular reason for our position but left the impression with AECASSOWARY 29 that there were certain aspects concerning Subject revealed by our traces that did not appeal to us. AECASSOWARY 29 did not question our position but asked whether there was a security problem involved. We replied that we had no evidence of a security problem being involved, but as is the case in Munich there are so many complicated relationships that it is sometimes better to withdraw from a situation than to attempt to straighten it out. We did not pursue the matter further. AECASSOWARY 29 contacted WOŁOSZYN again on 1 December 1961 as a matter of routine. His contact report shows how he conveyed to WOŁOSZYN the impression that he was not really interested in Subject of reference A in connection with ABEREIVE. Since WOŁOSZYN is not witting of KUBARK's relation with AECASSOWARY 29 or of AECASSOWARY 29's real function in Europe for AECASSOWARY 1, the approach taken by AECASSOWARY 29 appears to us to be most reasonable and convincing. We do not believe that WOŁOSZYN has been stimulated into unwarranted speculation on his own concerning Subject of reference A than he may have already had prior to AECASSOWARY 29's contacts. 3. Although we were as circumspect as possible under the circumstances to avoid any suggestion that Subject of reference A was being handled by another KUBARK component, we cannot rule out the possibility that AECASSOWARY 29 may have come to this conclusion on his own in light of his Headquarters training and briefing. However, we cannot in all justice to AECASSOWARY 29 consider that this possibility by itself increases the risk of exposure of the REDSKIN operation involving Subject of reference A beyond an acceptable minimum without concluding at the same time that all REDSKIN operations involving AECASSOWARY 29 contain the same unacceptable inherent risk. CONTACT REPORTDATE OF MEETING: 1 Dec 1960DATE OF REPORT: 16 Dec 1960PLACE OF MEETING: Cafe "Hoelzl" Dachauer-str., Munich, GermanyTIME OF MEETING: 1700 HRS to 2000PURPOSE OF MEETING: On instruction from ☐
of Subject of FROB 8077 by Wolodymyr WOLOSZYN.☐ to stop any development

1. NAME OF CONTACT: Wolodymyr WOLOSZYN

2. ADDRESS AND TELEPHONE NUMBER: Muenchen 54, Smaragdstr. 23/0

3. COMMO:

a. PRESENT MEETING: AECASSOWARY 29 met WOLOSZYN in "Biblios" printing shop, Munich, Hessstr. 50-52 where WOLOSZYN worked, at 1600 on 1 Dec 1960, and fixed an appointment with him for an hour later at the "Hoelzl".

b. NEXT MEETING: No fixed meeting has been arranged. WOLOSZYN can always be contacted, if necessary, in the "Biblios" (Hessstr. 50-52, Tel. 55 03 47) or at his home (Muenchen 54, Smaragdstr. 23/0).

4. SECURITY DATA: Nothing noticed.

5. BIOGRAPHIC DATA: N.A.

6. SUBSTANCE: In his talk with WOLOSZYN, AECASSOWARY 29 covered a number of various subjects asking WOLOSZYN first about the present political configuration of Ukrainian emigration in Germany, its relations with Germans (official and social), impact of Matviyenko's "message" on the ZCH/CUN (banderivtzi) and other political groups, impact of Berlin Committee on emigrants, repatriates, correspondence and contacts between emigrants and their relatives in the Ukraine, WOLOSZYN's correspondence with his brother-in-law in the Ukraine and then came upon his friend, Subject of FROB 8077. This has been done by AECASSOWARY 29 deliberately in order to avoid any impression that AECASSOWARY 29 is particularly interested in the case of Subject of FROB 8077 and that he has been his main reason for arranging the meeting. WOLOSZYN is unwitting and, in the case of Subject of FROB 8077, has played the role of a casual unwitting spotter.

According to WOLOSZYN, he is still helping Subject of FROB 8077 with his Ukrainian. Subject of FROB 8077 does make some progress, but could do much better. He is still interested in going to the Ukraine and wants to visit his father's village. If necessary, he would even go to Kalchenko for that. Subject of FROB 8077 told WOLOSZYN that he will go to the Ukraine with an American student. WOLOSZYN did not ask Subject of FROB 8077 who this American friend was. Subject of FROB 8077 visits WOLOSZYN from time to time, recently mostly with his fiancée. He is going to marry her soon. Subject of FROB 8077 very often seems to be in financial difficulties and only recently came to WOLOSZYN to borrow some money.

6. SUBSTANCE (CONT'D):

WOLOSZYN lent him DM 5. In WOLOSZYN's opinion, Subject of FROB 8077 is a very intelligent and energetic young man with a strong inclination towards adventurism. Therefore he needs good guidance if his talents are not to be wasted.

Subject of FROB 8077 has many student friends among Asians and South Americans. Only yesterday (30 November 1960), he promised to introduce WOLOSZYN to a Brazilian student who just returned from his visit to the Soviet Union and also had spent some time in the Ukraine. This Brazilian should have some films from Kiev and other Ukrainian cities and is going to demonstrate them. After being asked about Subject of FROB 8077's readiness to do something for our paper (The Ukrainian Independent), WOLOSZYN said that he thought Subject of FROB 8077 would agree to write a current account for us on the situation in the Ukraine, after his return. WOLOSZYN spoke with him about it in general terms and there was no objection on the part of Subject of FROB 8077. He would do it probably even more enthusiastically if we would help him a little bit financially and direct him as to what he was to look for in the Ukraine for his article.

AECASSOWARY 29 has stated that he has nothing against Subject of FROB 8077's eventual contribution to our paper, but he thinks it would be wrong to create an impression that our paper is particularly interested in him or that we are going to send him as a correspondent of ours. AECASSOWARY 29 doubts very much as to his journalistic capabilities and besides there are still some difficulties with Subject of FROB 8077's Ukrainian. Furthermore, we know very little about Subject of FROB 8077 and his American and other friends, and we cannot help financially without having the guarantee that his article will be worth it. As AECASSOWARY 29 understands, Subject of FROB 8077 has a rather negligible knowledge of the present Soviet reality and it would take much time and effort to get him acquainted with it. Therefore, WOLOSZYN should make no promises on behalf of himself or of our paper, and restrict his "aid" to Subject of FROB 8077 to helping him with his Ukrainian. AECASSOWARY 29 also is not interested in being introduced to Subject of FROB 8077. As Subject of FROB 8077 is about to go to the Ukraine on his own anyway, he needs no encouragement neither from WOLOSZYN personally nor from our paper.

WOLOSZYN agreed with AECASSOWARY 29 on that and promised to help Subject of FROB 8077 with his Ukrainian without making it conditional on Subject of FROB 8077's future eventual contribution to our paper.

AECASSOWARY 29 added that eventually it would be wise to send somebody to the Ukraine to get a first-hand report on the situation there, but he would have to be known to us and fit to do our job.

After that, AECASSOWARY 29 switched over to the present situation in the Ukraine and also to the Ukrainian Decade of 1960 in Moscow.

N.B. The talk was fully in accordance with AECASSOWARY 29's journalistic and political position and cover.

7. ASSESSMENT OF CONTACT.

WOLOSZYN works as a compositor with "Biblos" printing shop in Munich, Messstr. 50-52. He is a member of the regional executive of the OUN abroad in Germany and from time to time does some travelling in Bavaria. AECASSOWARY 29 does not mind using him for the time being as an unwitting casual spotter.

8. ATTITUDE, MORALE, PERFORMANCE;

AECASSOWARY 29's opinion is that in case WOLOSZYN again comes in contact with someone like Subject of FROB 8077, he will inform AECASSOWARY 29.

9. FINANCE AND SUPPORT:

None; except supper paid by AECASSOWARY 29.
